

FREDERICKTOWN.

Mr. Clyde Durbin, a student in the Fredericktown high school, went to Oberlin last Friday to attend the inter-collegiate debate between the Western Reserve University and Oberlin College the question being "Resolved: That All Corporations Engaged in Inter-State Commerce Should Be Compelled To Take Out Federal Charters; Constitutionality Conceded." Affirmative, Oberlin; negative, Western Reserve. Oberlin won.

Mr. Kent Shaffer of Mt. Vernon spent last Saturday in Fredericktown.

B. A. Click of Columbus was a Fredericktown caller on Monday last.

Mr. Frank Burns and family have moved to the John Dodd farm for the coming summer.

Mr. Fleet Corwin of Columbus and brother, Mr. Lloyd Corwin, of Mt. Vernon, visited with their father, Mr. C. Corwin, the past week.

Rev. and Mrs. Thos. Hambly visited with Rev. Hancock and family at Waterford on Monday last. Rev. and Mrs. Hancock and two children have secured their tickets on the steamship "Arabia" which sails for England in June where they go to visit their parents and other relatives this summer.

Mr. Harvey Smith moved his family into the Mrs. Corums residence the past week.

The M. E. ladies aid society held a pleasant meeting in the church parlors on Tuesday evening last.

The W. C. T. U. held a mothers' meeting at the home of Mrs. Eastman on Thursday evening of this week.

Mrs. Hazel Cramer of Orrville, O., who visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Williamson, returned home the past week.

Preaching services will be conducted by Rev. Thos. Hambly at the Berlin M. E. church next Sunday afternoon. It has been several weeks since services were held at this place.

Miss Madge Wells and Miss Ethel Corwin visited Mrs. Ed. Huggins a few days the past week.

The Ladies Missionary Society of the Methodist church had a delightful session at the home of Mrs. Joe Carron Thursday of last week.

Mr. W. D. Beers of Vincennes, Ind., was a visitor in this place on Monday last.

The Embroidery club met at the home of Mrs. Ewers last Saturday. H. W. Fogle of Cincinnati transacted business in Fredericktown on Monday last.

Mrs. Bert White was called to Columbus last week by the serious illness of her sister Miss Grace Wetzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Levering visited the former's parents at Waterford last Sunday.

W. R. Fogg of Mansfield was calling on Fredericktown friends on Tuesday last.

Mrs. Henry Thompson is reported seriously ill at her home in Batemantown. It is feared that an operation will be necessary to remove matter pressing on the brain.

Miss Rinehart and son of Mt. Vernon visited her mother Mrs. J. Mates in this place the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ewers visited relatives in Ankenytown on Sunday last.

Mrs. Marion Potter and daughter Mrs. Robert Clark attended the funeral of her cousin at Newark last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whitney moved the past week into the Alex Love house recently vacated by Mr. F. A. Hunt.

The Standard Bearers of the Methodist church met with Mrs. Thos. Hambly on Friday evening of this week.

Mr. F. O. Main and wife were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Brown at Pukaskville one day last week.

Miss Mabel Pavcett was missed from the post office several days the past week, she being on the sick list.

A number of ladies from this place attended the mid-year meeting of the Knox County W. C. T. U. held at Mt. Vernon on Tuesday of this week.

Mr. Joe Wilson of Fredericktown visited his brother, Mr. Ellsworth Wilson at Sparta a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Adella R. Daniels, widow of the late Elmer J. Daniels, has just received from Daniel Keller, record keeper of the Tent No. 256 of the Knights of the Macabees, two thousand dollars insurance due her. Mr. Daniels was a charter member of the above tent.

It is announced that Supt. W. W. Borden of the Fredericktown public schools will occupy the Presbyterian pulpit next Sunday.

J. M. Fletcher of Wheeling, W. Va., was in Fredericktown, last Saturday.

W. P. Martin of Mansfield was a Fredericktown visitor last Saturday.

O. H. Cohn of Cincinnati, transacted business in Fredericktown on Saturday last.

Mr. H. E. Gottshall of Mt. Vernon was a Fredericktown visitor last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Higgins were given a surprise Monday evening by a crowd of neighbors and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Higgins are preparing to move to their farm which they recently purchased at Batemantown.

Samuel Orr of Columbus was calling on Fredericktown friends last Friday.

Mr. Samuel Zent has been on the sick list the past week.

J. N. Palmer of Zanesville, O., visited friends in this place the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tiff Mann of Mansfield were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson of this place last Sunday.

I. A. Fisher of Lima, called on friends in this place last Monday.

L. A. Hollowell of Toledo visited with friends in this place the first of the week.

Mrs. Auten sold the house and two lots purchased from Frank Zeig about a year ago to Mr. Lew Caywood, last Monday.

J. B. Sprague of Buffalo, N. Y., was a caller in Fredericktown last Saturday.

Mrs. Jennie Andrews has sold her fine residence on Mansfield avenue to Mr. Fred Darling.

S. B. Backus of Ashland, O., was calling on Fredericktown friends on Monday of this week.

Miss Emma Strang of Columbus who has been visiting with Mt. Vernon relatives for several weeks past is now visiting with Miss Josie Strang of this place.

Word has been received here of the death of Miss O'Neil which occurred last week at the Old Ladies' Home in Zanesville. Her home was formerly in Chesterville, but for the past two years she has been in this home.

Word came here last week of the death of Mr. John D. Struble which occurred last week at his home in LeRoy, Kansas. He was a brother of Daniel and David Struble of this place.

Mr. J. D. Marak and Mr. C. C. Gibson, members of the Student Volunteer Band of Denison University, will conduct the morning and evening services at the Baptist church next Sunday. Mr. Marak, whose parents were typical heathens, is a native of India. He was converted through the influence of one of our missionaries and is now educating himself for the purpose of returning to his own people to give them the gospel message. He has an interesting story to tell. Do not fail to hear him.

Mr. P. J. Cummings is fitting up a new office for his lumber business in the large barn near his new residence.

A telephone message was received on Tuesday from Homesworth, Ohio, saying that Dr. Trullinger of that place had died suddenly at 4 p. m. Mr. W. S. Cummings and Mrs. D. W. Struble left Wednesday morning to attend the funeral. Interment was made Thursday at the Shenandoah, Ohio, cemetery.

The Greenlee addition to Fredericktown will be sold on Saturday of next week at 1:30 p. m. on the premises. The opening of this tract of land will give some nice building lots for somebody to make a lot of money by plating it for residence purposes.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Squires were given a miscellaneous shower by their friends on Monday evening.

Mr. Frank Willetts who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dell Bishop in Mt. Vernon is again at home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crowell who recently bought a residence in this place were given a pleasant reception by their friends at Chesterville last Thursday afternoon prior to their moving to Fredericktown.

Next Thursday the Baptist missionary society will hold their regular meeting with Mrs. A. M. Terry.

A St. Patrick's reception will be given by the ladies' aid society of the M. E. church at the home of Mrs. J. H. Dickey. No written invitations are needed for the ladies of the church and all are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. William Hites of Toledo, visited his sister, Mrs. Neptune, in this place, last Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. Souders of Shelby, who spent the past two weeks with her sister, Mrs. Neptune, returned to her home Friday last.

Mrs. John Hites of Shreve is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Neptune, in this place this week.

Mr. Harry Morris of Chesterville, Ohio, was a visitor in Fredericktown on Wednesday.

Charles A. Howend of Dubuque, Ia., was calling on Fredericktown friends last Tuesday.

Mr. John Hites of Wooster visited his sister, Mrs. Neptune, in Fredericktown last Saturday.

M. Braddock of New Lexington visited with friends in this place on Tuesday.

J. B. Metcalf of Loudonville visited Fredericktown on Tuesday.

W. E. Guess of Harlem Springs, O., transacted business in this place on Tuesday.

Wesley Jordan is making maple syrup up with Chas. McGugin. The long continued snows will make the season short.

Miss May Haines of Warsaw was visiting at Mr. Thomas'.

D. E. Coleman had the misfortune to have a runaway with two horses, demolishing his buggy and injuring one horse.

Miss Audrey Payne was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis over Sunday.

Mr. E. W. Burris of Millersburg spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Workman and daughter, Nona, of Alnsworth, Neb., arrived Tuesday, being called here by the serious illness of Mr. Workman's father, Mr. James Workman.

Mrs. Chas. Snow of Mt. Vernon was the guest of relatives here Tuesday.

Mrs. S. G. Shaw and daughters of Warsaw, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blubaugh and daughter, Vera, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Welker and Mrs. Joan Foster attended the funeral of Albert King at Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

Mr. Geo. Robinson of Glenmont was here on business Tuesday.

L. H. Burris made a business trip to Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

Miss Isabelle Cunningham of Gambier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gaines over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradford, Mrs. Abe Bartlett, Mrs. J. R. Banbury and Mrs. Samuel Shultz were Mt. Vernon visitors Tuesday.

Mr. James Gaines of Orrville was the guest of relatives over Sunday.

Mr. Harvey Hammond was in Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

G. T. Edwards was in Killbuck Tuesday on business.

There are quite a number of sales being held in this locality this spring.

Mrs. Leander Dennis, living three miles north of here, died very suddenly of heart disease, Thursday night about 10 o'clock. She leaves a husband, together with three daughters to mourn her loss.

John Litzburg sold his farm in Paulding county and has returned to Mt. Liberty and rented the A. J. Rinehart farm, west of town.

Mrs. Lewis Geiger and family have moved on Henry Butler's farm.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, March 6, a daughter.

Fred Colle and family of Mt. Vernon are visiting W. O. Coe and family.

The people of our village gave Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Youst a miscellaneous shower one evening last week and many useful presents were given them.

D. B. Trimmer brought in and sold two carloads of corn in our town recently.

Mrs. J. B. Masteller, Mrs. A. J. Rinehart and Aunt Mary Bird are all sick and making no improvement.

Lee Smothers of Marengo spent a few days this week with his brother, Edward, and family, of our town.

Russell Tucker, one of Mt. Liberty's steady young men, has gotten a position as fireman on the C. & A. C., and went to work March 4th.

The local gas company of Mt. Liberty had a meeting Monday evening and voted to put up two more street lamps.

Morgan Rinehart of Gambler visited his parents here recently.

Mrs. Amanda Tilton and daughter, Clara, were guests Sunday of Mrs. William Painter of Fallsburg, it being Mrs. Painter's 80th birthday.

Mr. Foster Dodd of Delaware was here the past week looking after the gas well which was being drilled on his farm which came in Sunday a duster.

Mr. Johnson Sims had a Bell telephone put in their home Saturday.

Mrs. James Noffsinger visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Schooler last week.

About twelve couples of our young people drove to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harrod near Hunts one night last week.

Mrs. Harriman is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Roberts of Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Waldo Grief is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Weaver of Fairview.

Mr. Harry Dean is beautifying his residence on Main street with a coat of paint.

Sufferers who say they have tried everything without benefit are the people we are looking for. We want them to know from glad experience that Ely's Cream Balm will conquer Cold in the Head, Hay Fever, and obstinate forms of Nasal Catarrh. This remedy acts directly on the inflamed, sensitive membranes. Cleansing, soothing and healing. One trial will convince you of its healing power. Price 50c. All drugists, or mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren St., New York.

Miss Caroline McFadden went to Zanesville Wednesday to be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Crendon for a few days.

Miss Sallie Harris of Howard was the guest of Miss Anna Parrish over Sunday.

Mrs. Robert Lybarger of Columbus was the guest of her father over Sunday.

Miss Audrey Payne was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Davis over Sunday.

Mr. E. W. Burris of Millersburg spent Saturday and Sunday with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Workman and daughter, Nona, of Alnsworth, Neb., arrived Tuesday, being called here by the serious illness of Mr. Workman's father, Mr. James Workman.

Mrs. Chas. Snow of Mt. Vernon was the guest of relatives here Tuesday.

Mrs. S. G. Shaw and daughters of Warsaw, are guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blubaugh and daughter, Vera, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Welker and Mrs. Joan Foster attended the funeral of Albert King at Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

Mr. Geo. Robinson of Glenmont was here on business Tuesday.

L. H. Burris made a business trip to Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

Miss Isabelle Cunningham of Gambier was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Gaines over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradford, Mrs. Abe Bartlett, Mrs. J. R. Banbury and Mrs. Samuel Shultz were Mt. Vernon visitors Tuesday.

Mr. James Gaines of Orrville was the guest of relatives over Sunday.

Mr. Harvey Hammond was in Mt. Vernon Tuesday.

G. T. Edwards was in Killbuck Tuesday on business.

There are quite a number of sales being held in this locality this spring.

Mrs. Leander Dennis, living three miles north of here, died very suddenly of heart disease, Thursday night about 10 o'clock. She leaves a husband, together with three daughters to mourn her loss.

John Litzburg sold his farm in Paulding county and has returned to Mt. Liberty and rented the A. J. Rinehart farm, west of town.

Mrs. Lewis Geiger and family have moved on Henry Butler's farm.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bishop, March 6, a daughter.

Fred Colle and family of Mt. Vernon are visiting W. O. Coe and family.

The people of our village gave Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Youst a miscellaneous shower one evening last week and many useful presents were given them.

D. B. Trimmer brought in and sold two carloads of corn in our town recently.

Mrs. J. B. Masteller, Mrs. A. J. Rinehart and Aunt Mary Bird are all sick and making no improvement.

Lee Smothers of Marengo spent a few days this week with his brother, Edward, and family, of our town.

Russell Tucker, one of Mt. Liberty's steady young men, has gotten a position as fireman on the C. & A. C., and went to work March 4th.

1910 Spring Opening 1910

Smart Novelties For Easter

A HEARTY INVITATION

is extended to all the people of Knox County to visit our store and see a most representative and beautiful display of the latest styles in Men's Women's and Children's Oxfords.

Patent Colt Blucher

The Patent Colt 4-eyelet Gibson Tie pictured above will appeal strongly to a conservative dresser. It has a neat straight tip; closely trimmed welt sole; medium high heel. It is a very comfortable and perfect fitting shoe.

This Style No. 2502..$3.00

Nothing is too good for our friends.

Just dependable Methods win friends.

Women's Oxfords

Patent Colt Plain Toe

It is time now to discard those winter shoes and get into a pair of New Stylish Spring Oxfords. The great variety of Styles shown here gives your fancy free and unlimited scope.

Parr can fit any foot in Knox County and can meet your every want in Ultra Fashionable or Conservative Footwear.

The three styles shown, give you only the faintest idea of what you can get here.

This Patent Colt Plain Toe Oxford illustrated was made in the 20th century for 20th century dressers. Nothing the least bit ancient can be found in any of its lines. It has a high heel high arch and high toe that are just one better than last season's. It is a perfect fitter around the ankle.

This Style No. 2505..$3.00

You will always receive courteous and careful attention at Parr's Shoe Store.

A Classy Pump for Easter

Style 2701.....$3.00

Men's Oxfords

Parr offers to the Men of Knox County the largest and most complete lines of $3.50 and $4.00 Oxfords that it is possible to place in this town. Neither Time nor Money were spared to produce Men's Footwear for this Season that could not be equalled except at much higher prices.

No lines at any price contain more or better style. And no lines at anything like the same price can compare in the workmanship or materials used in these. Parr's Knox $3.50 Shoes for Men have made good ever since their introduction here, but this year, even in the face of advancing prices in all lines, they are better by far than ever before.

Two good numbers are illustrated here but to get any idea of what we have to offer you must see them all.

We ask the favor of a call from you.

Boys', Girls' & Children's Oxfords

Parr never forgets to provide liberally for the many young people who visit his store. This Spring finds several new lines of Oxfords and Pumps in the store that will delight not only them but mother and father also.

For Boys we have Tan and Black Calf, Patent Lace and Button Oxfords, in all sizes and widths.

Prices.....$1.50 to $3.50

Special care has been taken to make these Oxfords as strong, sturdy and attractive as possible and at the same time to offer them at prices that will make you want to come back again.

For Girls, Patent and Gunmetal Pumps with ankle straps are best for dress. Tans are very good for street wear.

Prices.....$1.00 to $3.00

Travelers' Luggage

Trunks of bass wood, with best trimmings, strong locks and handles ..$4.00 to $18.00

Suit Cases of solid leather Karatol or Japan Reed, strongly built throughout.....$1.50 to $10.00

Bags of walrus, grain or sole leather, tan and black$5.00 to $12.00

At Your Service

SILAS PARR, Prop.

Frank Meade
J. Philip Brereton
Russell M. Church

Finding Articles

Oxford Ties, black and tan, grogran and silk5c to 25c

Arch Supporters.....$1.50
Bunion Protectors50c
Shinola Outfits.....35c

Cork and Hair Insoles at5c and 10c

Baby Moccasins in a good variety of colors, per pair50c

PHONE 836 Black

SILAS PARR

3 S. Main St. Mt. Vernon, O